

NOW, THEREFORE, I Calvin L. Rampton, Governor of the State of Utah, on the recommendation of the State Engineer of Utah, and pursuant and by virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 73-6-2, U.C.A., 1953, do hereby restore to the public the right to appropriate the surplus and unappropriated water for any and all lawful purposes from that portion of the Provo River between its head waters and Deer Creek Dam and Spanish Fork River and all tributaries to said streams.

This proclamation shall become effective April 5, 1971, after notice thereof has been published at least once a week for three successive weeks in newspapers of general circulation within the drainage basins of the Provo and Spanish Fork Rivers; provided, however, that after the first publication of said notice, applications may be deposited with the State Engineer and at the time such proclamation become effective the State Engineer shall hold public hearings giving all applicants notice to determine which applications so filed during the period of publication are most conducive to the public good, and shall file such applications in order of priority according to such determination and rejecting those for which there is no unappropriated water.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Utah. Done at the State Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah, this 5th day of March, 1971, at 11:50 o'clock A. M.

CALVIN L. RAMPTON
Governor of the State of Utah
