

NOW, THEREFORE, I George D. Clyde, Governor of the State of Utah, on the recommendation of the State Engineer of Utah, and pursuant and by virtue of the authority vested in me by Section 73-6-2, U.C.A., 1953, do hereby restore to the public the right to appropriate the surplus and unappropriated water for any and all lawful purposes from Little Brush Creek, Brush Creek, Ashley Creek, Uintah River, Yellowstone Creek, Lake Fork Creek, Rock Creek, Duchesne River and Strawberry River.

The status of the Provo River and the Spanish Fork River and all tributaries to said streams shall remain unaffected by this proclamation.

This proclamation shall become effective December 7, 1964, after notice thereof has been published at least once a week for three successive weeks in newspapers of general circulation within the boundaries of the Uintah Basin area; provided, however, that after the first publication of said notice, applications may be deposited with the State Engineer and at the time such proclamation becomes effective the State Engineer shall hold public hearings giving all applicants notice to determine which applications so filed during the period of publication are most conducive to the public good, and shall file such applications in order of priority according to such determination and rejecting those for which there is no unappropriated water.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Utah. Done at the State Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah, this 2nd day of November 1964, at 4:20 O'Clock P.M.

George D. Clyde
GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF UTAH
