

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF UTAH

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, in order to preserve the surplus and unappropriated water of the Logan River, a tributary of Bear River, for use by irrigation districts and organized agricultural water users and for other uses, the right of appropriation of water from such source was heretofore suspended by Proclamation of the Governor of Utah pursuant to Section 100-8-1, Utah Code Annotated, 1943, and

WHEREAS, there is no need for further suspension of the right of appropriation of the water of Logan River and the State Engineer has recommended that the right of appropriation be restored,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Heber Bennion, Jr., Acting Governor of the State of Utah, upon the recommendation of the State Engineer and pursuant to and by virtue of the authority vested in the Governor of the State of Utah by Section 100-8-3, Utah Code Annotated, 1943, hereby restore to appropriation for any and all lawful purposes the surplus and unappropriated water of the Logan River and all tributaries thereto. The proclamation withdrawing from appropriation the water of such source is hereby revoked and annulled.

This proclamation shall not become effective until notice thereof has been published at least once a week for three successive weeks in a newspaper of general circulation within the boundaries of the Logan River system as provided by law.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the Great Seal of the State of Utah.

Done at the State Capitol, Salt Lake City, Utah, this 2nd day of June, 1949.

Heber Bennion, Jr.
ACTING GOVERNOR
