

and all the waters which spring up or rise upon his said land and as more fully described in the answer in this action.

THE DEFENDANT JOHN W. GLAZIER is the owner of in fee to the exclusive rights to the use during the entire year of each and every year of all the waters of what is known as "HEDDLE ROCK CANYON", and of all the springs and waters which rise upon his land owned by him at the time of the commencement of this action, and adjacent to the said Johnson Creek and of all the waters of any and all springs rising upon his said land.

The DEFENDANT NEEPI JOHNSON is the owner of in fee to the exclusive right during the entire year of each and every year of all the waters of what is known as DAIRY CANYON, a tributary of said Johnson Creek, and to the exclusive rights to the use of all the waters rising upon his land owned by him at the commencement of this action adjacent to said Johnson Creek and of the waters of any and all springs situated or rising upon his land as more fully described in the answer of said defendant on file herein.

The DEFENDANT JOEL JOHNSON and Mrs. FRANK FARNSWORTH, in accordance with the respective rights of each are the owners of in fee to the exclusive right during the entire year of each and every year of all the water of what is known as Stewart Canyon, a tributary of Johnson Creek in Kane County, Utah, and of all the waters rising upon their land owned by them at the commencement of this action and adjacent to said Johnson Creek and of all the waters of any and all springs situated upon or rising upon their land in accordance with their respective rights of each