

between the time the claims were signed or prepared and the time of publication of the Proposed Determination. Such changes may include changes in ownership or changes as documented by an approved change application. Therefore, this Interlocutory Decree approves and confirms each Water User's Claim as of the date of publication of the Proposed Determination (August 5, 1993), subject to any changes in ownership or by approved change application. If the Claim was the subject of an objection, the effective date is the date of this Interlocutory Decree.

V. SETTLED OBJECTIONS

The following objections have been resolved by agreement between the water user and the State Engineer. By this Interlocutory Decree, the following objections and all others are settled and dismissed, and the Water User's Claims involved are hereby amended, decreed, and confirmed in accordance with the following:

1. Water User's Claim 01-70: The Proposed Determination is hereby amended to state that the owner of Water User's Claim 01-70 is the Lazy Shamrock Ranch Partnership; that the claim includes storage in an unnamed reservoir with a storage period from January 1 to December 31, a capacity of 1.0 acre-feet, inundating an area in the NW1/4SE1/4 of section 26, T20S, R24E, SLB&M; and that the supplemental Water User's Claim numbers are 01-70, 470 through 473, 486 through 493, 1034 through 1038, in the Agate Allotment.
